Round 2 of the 2004 Larkspeed League took a trip south to the long course at Curborough for Sheffield and Hallamshire's Sprint which attracted an Entry of 69 competitors. With heavy rain over the weekend, the event looked on Saturday like the speed boat class may be favorite ( I am sure there is one !), however sunday proved to be drier saving the rain for the journey home. On their home event S&HMC were overall winners with Ilkley and A&P the closest rivals. After round 2, Ilkley have edged ahead of Huddersfield with the pack close behind. Many thanks to all the Marshals and Organisers. The next event is North Humberside's Rally on the 16th May with the regs now available. Round 4 will be A&P PCT on 13th June.
