Round 8 of the 2004 Larkspeed League after the summer break, went to Acaster Malbis for York Motor Clubs autotest. Unfortunately only 24 competitors entered and completed the excellent tests set out over the spacious site. For once this year, dust not rain was the problem and anyone without the window up, soon experienced a taste of the course. The loose surface still favoured Ilkley however, who took overall victory with Huddersfield and YSCC bringing up second and third. The win has helped Ilkley extend their lead over Huddersfield while YSCC swapped places with North Humberside for 4th. Many thanks to all the Marshals and Organisers. The next rounds are both autotests on sealed surfaces with YSCC's on the 10th October and Alwoodley's on the 7th November. We look forward to seeing you there.
