Round 1 of the 2006 Yorkshire League kicked off with Trackrod's Lookout Stages Rally at Melbourne Airfield which attracted an Entry of 89 competitors. This year the threat of snow held off until just before lunch making the course extremely slippery. The action though was thrilling with the top two entering the last stage 1 second apart. Congratulations to Alex Taylor who pipped the 6R4 of Andy Elliot on the last stage to grab victory. Many thanks to the marshals and organisers who did well to survive the bitter cold wind. The first round of the new league has seen some good scores with five clubs scoring more than 200 points. Round 2 is YSCC's autotest on the 2nd April.
